David,

(b) (6) (McKinsey, included on this email) is working on a management study for PBS. He met with Emily yesterday and Emily suggested that PBS may be able to benefit from a PMR like process in trying to bring some standardization to certain of their activities.

(b) (6) would like to get an overview of the PMR process. Emily thought you may be the right person to do that. I'll leave it to you and (b) (6) to take it from here.

Thanks - Rob
